

CONTINUING STUDIES@UVIC

Strengthening perspectives...

Indigenous Language Revitalization CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Apply now!

Mowachaht-Muchalaht

First Nation Contact:

Jorge Llaca
Education, Child & Family
Services Manager
Tel: (250) 283-2015, Ext: 129
Email: cfs.mgr@yuquot.ca

UVic Program Contact:

Janna Wilson
Program Coordinator
Tel: (250) 721-8504
Email: cilr@uvic.ca

Who can apply?

The CILR program is a first-year university certificate program that welcomes all learners, regardless of educational background. The program is looking for students who are passionate about the Nuu-chah-nulth language. Please request a registration package by emailing: cfs@yuquot.ca.

The Certificate in Indigenous Language Revitalization (CILR) is an eight-course undergraduate certificate that includes five core courses and three Indigenous language/elective courses. Starting February 2025!

PROPOSED SCHEDULE

Course Numbers & Titles	Dates (tentative)
LING 159 Nuu-chah-nulth Language I	Feb-April 2025
LING 180B Issues, Principles, and Practices in Language Revitalization	Spring 2025
LING 183A Documentation and Recording for Indigenous Language Reclamation	Spring 2025
LING 259 Nuu-chah-nulth Language II (part 1)	Spring 2025
LING 180A Dynamics of Indigenous Language Shift	Fall 2025
LING 181 Introductory Linguistics for Language Revitalization	Fall 2025
LING 259 Nuu-chah-nulth Language II (part 2)	Fall 2025
LING 182 Language Learning, Language Revitalization and Social Action	Winter 2026
Tentative – additional language course for students laddering into the diploma program	Winter 2026 & Spring 2026

Note: Schedule subject to change and will be finalized in consultation with the community*

This project was funded by the Province of British Columbia.

MOWACHAHT | MUCHALAHT
— FIRST NATION —

University of Victoria